Wheat Declined, Then Railled Slightly -Good Weather and Crop Prospects the Main Features-Corn Depressed by Crop Advices.

Wheat opened a trifle stronger, speedily declined sharply and became firmer toward the close. The numerous and erratic varia-tions were mainly attributable to the abundance of conflicting influences. The fractional rise at the outset was surprising to traders generally, as it was caused wholly by an unexpected and somewhat startling advance in September contracts in Liverweak opening. It was generally supposed that September shorts in Liverpool had become nervous because of reports that red It turns out that much of the new wheat s too poor. It is light in weight, while the berry is shrivelled and bleached. It was asserted that the general average quality of red winter wheat is rather lower than last year. This has made conservative traders timid about keeping on the short side. Then, too, there was moderate buying by houses having continental connections, prompted it was imagined by the

Building News.

Plans have been filed with Building Superintendent Murphy for a five story private residence to be built at No. 103 East Thirty-seventh street from designs by Foster, Gade & Graham, architects, for Augusta Bliss Reese as owner. It is to have a frontage of 25 feet and a depth of 60 feet with an extension. It will have elevator service and is to cost $50,000.

Plans were filled yesterday for the proposed enlargement and beautifying of the old Roman Catholic Church of St. Vincent Ferrer at Lexington avenue and Sixty-sixth street, which is to be reconstructed from designs by Allen & Collens, architects, with James W. O'Connor as associate, at a cost of $170,000 for the Literary Society of St.
Vincent Ferrer.

Plans have been filed for remodelling the offices on the eighth floor of the Edison power station at Duane and Elm streets, the improvements being made from designs by W. Weisenberger as architect, and for enlarging the baths in the synagogue building at No. 137 Attorney street, the improvements being made for Peter Levinger as owner from designs by Max Muller, Plans have also been filed by Raymond

Plans have also been filed by Raymond F. Almirall as city architect for erecting on the top floor of the City Hospital on Blackwell's Island an operating theatre, with a dome light and equipped with an instrument room, an X-ray room, rooms for the surgeons, with a workroom for the nurses and a series of recovery rooms.

Additional elevator service will be installed in connection with the improvement, which is to be made at a cost of $33,000.

The Broax plans for new buildings comprise four six story flats to be built for Greenstein & Mayer at the southwest corner of Brook avenue and 157th street at a cost of $145,000, and a four story flat with ground floor store for P. De Meola on Hoffman street south of 188th street, to cost $20,000.
